

This is agent Pierce.

The Coordinates you entered lead to Hilton Head Island. You need to get there immediately. The next flight leaves from Newark, and our agency will provide the tickets.

While you travel, our team has discovered three more puzzles linked to the three points on top the glyph. We have deciphered clues for the first two.

We will send you the details. Get to Hilton Head Island. There is an Agent there preparing a flash drive with everything you need to finish this. We will be in touch.
